HIGHLIGHTS

- The committee members decided to add new programs into the curriculum other than those prescribed in the syllabus.
- Value added programs, Add on programs had topics which are out of box thinking. This will instill a positive mindset among the students and will encourage them to take up further studies in the upcoming fields and specialties.
- Interdepartmental meets have become more interactive and students participated actively.
- Industry representative shared ideas on how to be practice ready once a student has graduated from the college.
- Alumni representative shared their thought on how the college could mould them into a better practioner and wanted to give back to their Alma mater.
