Report on Student Council Activities

The Student Council serves as a means to nurture leadership skills among students by engaging them in college activities and community service projects. Beyond organizing events that foster college spirit and benefit the community, it also acts as the representative body for the students.

The Student Council came into existence with the approval of the faculty. It comprised students distinguished by their creative aptitude, leadership skills, management proficiency, and discipline, all of whom were elected by their fellow students.

The Student Council plays a pivotal role in cultivating responsible leadership and instilling commendable character values in all students through a variety of projects and activities. The objectives of the Student Council encompass:

- ETHICS
- RESPONSIBILITIES
- SCHOLARSHIP
- LEADERSHIP
- HUMANITY
- CULTURAL VALUES

All Student Council Members:

- 1. Ensure presence at every Student Council meeting, activity, and event.
- 2. Demonstrate respect to teachers and to fellow classmates.
- 3. Uphold appropriate conduct consistently.

The various committees of the institution have ample of representation from the students.

- The Sports Committee plays a vital role in organizing a wide range of both intercollegiate and intra-college sports events. The Sports Secretary, in collaboration with the Physical Education Director, assumes responsibility for overseeing all sports-related activities, including the upkeep of sports facilities and the procurement of necessary sports equipment. The student secretary also coordinate with the students to participate in intercollegiate sports event conducted by the institution.

- The Cultural Committee is a pivotal part of the institutional cultural landscape, with its secretary serving as the representative from the student forum. The secretary holds the responsibility for conducting diverse cultural events within the college. Moreover, they play a crucial role in organizing student participation in intercollegiate cultural events hosted by external institutions.

The activities of the Council play a very important role in enabling the institution to reach the highest standards not only in the academic field but also on the extracurricular front.

Students on the campus participate in election process to choose their representatives for Student Council. These elected representatives play a vital role as representatives for the student body and administration. Regular council meetings are conducted to deliberate on proposed agendas. The student council selects representatives to serve as student members in different committees. This committee comprises a total of 24 student members, consisting of 14 undergraduates and 10 postgraduates. The post graduate students attend to the problems of PG students. Members of this committee actively participate in scheduled meetings and lend their support to a variety of activities organized throughout the year.

The student members within each committee actively engage in raising awareness among their peers at various levels about the committee's goals and responsibilities. They also play a pivotal role in addressing any student-related academic and non-academic concerns by facilitating discussions with the relevant committee staff members and the administration during meetings. Student council committee members involvement in extra curricular activities
